

Photo by Chris

Casella

Melinda Rosenberg has shown extensively and is represented by Sherrie Gallery in Columbus, and Haen Gallery in Asheville and Brevard, North Carolina. Her work is in the collection of Hilton Hotels and The Franklin County Convention Facilities Authority, the James Cancer Hospital, University of Toledo, Glimcher Realty Trust in Columbus, Ohio, Richard M. Ross Art Museum at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, Rush Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, Huntington Mortgage Company, Worthington, Ohio and many others. She has been awarded an Individual Artist Grant numerous times from the Ohio Arts Council and was chosen by the Greater Columbus Arts Council for the Artist in Residency program to go to Dresden Germany for three months. She resides in Worthington with her husband, Steve and daughter, Amelia. She received her BAE and MFA from The Ohio State University and studied Chinese Language at Fu Jen University in Taipei, Taiwan.